Sam Knott came down from Springdale to spend Christmas with the folks at home

Did some one say quail on toast? Fine, luscious quail can be found at the City Meat market

The Christmas entertainment for the Methodist Sunday school will be given Monday night

Dr. M. L. Hooper moved into handsome offices in the new National State bank building today.

M. B. Rowe and wife of Fort Wayne Ind., have arrived to spend the holidays with their son, the gifted Professor Rowe.

The exhibition drill given by H Co. 1st Colorado Volunteers January 12 at Armory hall will be well worth seeing Prof. H. B. Richardson of Amherst college, Massachusetts, is spending a few days with his brother at 531 Spruce street.

Beans, jeweler, will move back to his old stand and will be there for a few days to settle accounts prior to his departure.

Mrs Colvin and daughter, Mrs Campbell, have gone to Denver to spend the holidays with Mr and Mrs Clarence Colvin.

The firm of Autrey and Bemus were engaged in removing to their fine new office in the new National State bank building today.

Marriage licenses were issued today to J. W. Montgomery and Maud Bradford of Lyons, and to William L. Burt and Hattie Moon of Lafayette.

What's the use buying the children so many Christmas gifts? Uncle Tom's Cabin is coming here, with Uncle Tom, little Eva and the bull dogs.

Boulder citizens should respond nobly to the relief of private Frank Smith, a benefit for which will be given by our soldier volunteers early in January,

A daughter of E V. Pomeroy, who lives on P. J. Werley's place, south of the university, lies dangerously ill with appendicitis. She is but seven years old. No operation has been performed.

Who balks, the firemen or the horses? This is a question Chief Fonda and the fire and police board ought to determine at an early date. If the horses are not at fault, drivers should be changed, but if it is the animals that are at fault, there ought to be enough money in the city treasury to secure new ones.

Mr Marshall Bliss, after seventy-one hours of coma, breathed his last at his handsome home in Mapleton, at 11 o'clock last night. He was aged 73 and leaves a wife and two daughters. It is thought that interment will be in Kansas City, where a son lies buried. Mr Bliss has lived here four or five years, having purchased the fine home of Fred Lockwood. The body was embalmed by Mr. Trezise.

The arrival of Ellory Hartley from Cripple Creek, to be followed by that of Lincoln Hartley from Leadville, with the presence of Mr and Mrs W. H. Gardner of this city, and Mr and Mrs Ivan Barr, and Joe and Will Hartley of Ward, will make a jolly reunion of the family of Mr and Mrs J. D. Hartley at Ward next week. There will be but one missing, Mrs Talbot, who is with her husband in Sonoro, Mexico.

"How large do you call Boulder?" asked Mr. R. H. Buck of Denver, who was in town yesterday. When he was told by the reporter that the latter "allowed" there must be between 8,000 and 8,500 people here, he said, "Oh, pshaw! More than that. Just look at that market there. There's a display of fine beef, turkeys, fancy lambs and mutton and a line of game that would do credit to any market in Denver If that market is any criterion, you have a much larger population." He was standing in front of Euler & Voegtle's City Meat market, which certainly makes a handsome Christmas week display

A beautiful line of poems and other nice books at Gilbert's, also perfumes of every description, necktie boxes, collar and cuff boxes, photograph albums, boxes and holders, toilet and manicure sets, and hundreds of other nice things at prices that will sell them.

There will be a service at St. John's church Christmas morning at 10 o'clock.

St. John's church will have its Christmas tree for the Sunday school this evening at 7 o'clock.

W. E. Withrow and sister started for their home in Central City today to spend the holidays.

Mrs Clara Savory was today the recipient of a box of handsome flowers from Los Angeles, California.

Mr and Mrs Ed Harris have gone to Leavenworth, Kansas, to make a visit with the former's parents.

Willis Strachan and "Parson" Haskins two well known law students of the university left today for their homes, the former for Colorado Springs, the latter La Junta.

The relief committee of the Christian Relief Association, aided by the Young Ladies Christian Association of the State University, is arranging to furnish Christmas dinners to many poor families in the city and vicinity.

Mr Frank W. Corliss and wife of Omaha are the guests of Dr. and Mrs Wilson. They are old parishoners of his and are making a tour of the West and Southwest. He has large interests in the creamery business in Omaha.

The death of William Probert occurred at Erie yesterday morning from hemorrhage. Mr Probert was a popular young man, 24 years of age, and was a clerk in his father's drug store. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and Rebecca lodges of Erie and they will have charge of the funeral tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The approach of Christmas has brought in a large number of miners with shipments of ore to exchange for the festive Christmas gift. Among other well known shippers who were down today were Mark Dally, Henry Jansen and John Wolcock, all leasers in the Slide mine at Gold Hill, Maeger & Company of the Cash in the same camp and the Long brothers of the Sac & Fox, Magnolia.

This office doesn't look it, but it has been the recipient today of several kindly visitations. Among these George J. Helmer, the popular representative of Zang's brewery, should be mentioned. A case of the peerless Pilsener was dropped into the sanctum together with some huge calendars, one containing the well known physiogs of the great Adolph Zang and Pete Fredericks and the rest of that aggregation that reduces barley into a gentle fluid that aids digestion and makes one feel affluent.

The Presbyterian church of Sunset was organized with nineteen members, last Thursday night. Dr. Wilson officated as the representative of Boulder Presbytery and Dr Kirkwood of Colorado Springs, Rev Powell of the same place and Schureman of Ft Collins assisted in the organization. Messrs Austin, Dunning and Fowler were elected elders and Mrs Austin, Mr Waldren and Mr Dunning trustees. Sunset is to be congratulated in this decided movement. It is expected that services will be held every Sunday and a pastor secured.

Troops Withdrawn from Barcelona.

Madrid, Dec. 23—The troops have been withdrawn from Barcelona, the tax riots having ended yesterday.

Is there any thing in particular that your appetite craves during this holiday season? They have it at the City Meat market, Euler & Voegtle, proprietors.

Having bought a large line of holiday goods at manufacturers cost, I am in a position to sell them at prices that defy competition. CHAS. T. GILBERT, Druggist.

Shell oysters and clams are calculated to soothe the inner man and make Christmas worth having. The City Meat market has them, In fact, it has everything. Don't fail to see its holiday offerings. Never anything like it in Boulder.

"Pride Goeth Before a Fall."

Some proud people think they have strong constitutions, and ridicule the idea of disease. Such people neglect their health, let the blood run down, and their stomach, kidneys and liver become deranged. Don't be foolish about your health. Use Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will prevent the fall and save your pride.

Bladder Troubles—"Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me so much good for my stomach and bladder troubles that I want to recommend it heartily to others. I am in better health than I have been for the past 20 years." Rev. E. I. Monroe, Dublin, Virginia.

Impure Bood—"I was troubled with pimples, resulting from impure blood. Since taking four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, the pimples have disappeared and I am well." W. H. Mallins, Steubenville, O.

Rheumatism—"I had rheumatism three or four years. Could not dress or undress. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me good and I am now able to do all my work." Fannie L. Derricotte, Athens, Ga.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Friends of W. S. Simons, so long with Hiskey & McNaughton, and with other Boulder grocery houses: Won't you call and see me at my new store, formerly A. S. Brown's, Pearl street, Boulder? Just drop in and see how my store looks even if you don't need anything in my line. W. S. SIMONS.

Say, there, young lady, he may want a pretty meerschaum or briar pipe, don't you know. And if you should make him a present of just what he wanted, rather than what you thought he ought to have, your stock might go up a hundred per cent in his estimation. Lewis has them at the "Elite," on Pearl street and in all varieties. He, also, has some handsome Christmas packages of Boulder made cigars. They will please him sure.
