Rev. R. A. Chase, superintendent of the Anti Saloon League, has moved his family from Florence to 236 Sherman venue, Denver.

John Drumm, the barber, hums a lullaby as his razor gently glides over the faces of his customers. A new boy baby at his house.

A few of the relics that will be on exhibition at the benefit ball January 12th, are on exhibition in Gilbert's drug store window. See the rest.

Mrs. Will P. Fisher left for Springfield, Mo., with the children this afternoon. Mr. Fisher will leave later in the week. The lady will visit at various places en route.

The university resumed work in all departments today. Rev. Mr. Sibbald of the Episcopal church addressed the students in chapel and will conduct chapel exercises throughout the week.

Mr J. Falland received word Saturday of the death of his sister at her home in Nebraska. During her short stay in Boulder last fall she made many friends who will be pained to hear of her death.

W. F. Freeman, cashier and tax agent of the Colorado Midland, arrived in town today on business connected with the Inter Ocean mine, which he and his associates have operate for several years.

During her two terms of office ended tonight Mrs Sue M. Callahan, the clerk and recorder, has issued 724 marriage licenses in four years. The 724th was to J. E. Pegg and Miss Eva Pease, both of Boulder.

As foreshadowed in Saturday's issue the National State bank was moved Saturday night and this morning the faithful attaches were seen in iron cages serving the interests of their customers at the elegant new quarters in the new National State bank block

Dr. Wm. Duane and bride arrived Saturday evening from Philadelphia where their wedding ceremony was performed on December 28. The genial professor was given a rousing ovation on his appearance in chapel this morning, but responded with blushing silence to the students' vociferous demands for a speech

Fred Squires came over from Lafayette to spend Sunday at home. He said the Denver, Boulder & Northern survey is now six miles north of Louisville and by the end of the week the Cunningham division of it, to which he is attached will, probably, shift its headquarters to Longmont. Another party is still in the field between Marshall and Superior.

Installation of the newly elected officers of Nathaniel Lyon post Saturday night attracted a large number of the veterans and their ladies. The barracks were rendered especially attractive by the profusion of flowers and plants kindly donated for the occasion by Alderman Ed Hubbard. Mr C. Ricketts officiated as installing officer and members are loud in their praise of his work. There was a lavish spread of substantial edibles and the affair passed off very pleasantly.

All remember the benefit ball given by H Co. First Colorado Volunteers for the benefit of Frank Smith, on January 12th Tickets on sale at Maxwell & Greenman's, Gilbert's and Fonda's drug stores.

Those who need glasses or treatment for their eyes or ears, we gladly refer to Dr. Scott, the Denver oculist, who comes to the Bowen hotel next Wednesday. He gives satisfaction and is reliable.

COAL—Don't delay putting in your winter's supply of coal. Send your orders to the right place. You want satisfaction and the best way to make sure of it is to order the Superior coal from the Woollett-Brown Lumber & Supply Co. No 1027 15th street.

Miss Lou Wise has returned from a visit with her sisters, Mrs Hoskinson and Mrs Clay at Denver.

Mr H. A. Green, who operated a mine at Sunshine, died recently in Providence, R. I., of cancer of the stomach.

News from Meadville, Pa., is to the effect that the wife of Colonel Thompson, president of the Colorado & Northwestern Construction company, is very ill and her daughter has been summoned from California to be at her bedside. Mrs Thompson is remembered here as a white haired lady of exceeding amiability and has a large circle of friends.

It is reported that a barn in the rear of John Lund's place caught fire twice Saturday night. The flames were extinguished once by Dr. Gilbert, who happened to be in that vicinity. About the same time the barn of Mr Sheldon burned to the ground and three distinct attempts to ring up the fire department were made from that quarter. There appears to be a pretty lively firebug operating in the eastern part of town

An employe of the Crystal Springs brewery drew $50 and left town late last week, leaving the balance due him—some $150—in the hands of Manager Berlin. This was providential apparently, as he stopped in Denver while en route east, and fell into the hands of the Philistines. He awoke to realize that his $50 had gone the way money always goes down on Market street. The Denver papers tell of a "prominent business man of Boulder," one A. J. Baker, who got rolled for $15 on the same thoroughfare. Presumably some other town is Mr Baker's residence.

Mrs. Blanche Newton.

Blanche, wife of Homer Newton and a three months bride, died at her home at 2119 Water street this morning. Interment will be at Bloomfield, Iowa. There will be funeral services at the undertaking rooms of Mr. Trezise tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs Newton was an earnest christian and a regular attendant of the First Baptist church, of which her husband is an active member. All members of the church are requested to be present.

THE CAP EXPLODED.

Small Boy Fires One off and Loses Fingers as a Result.

Earl Sipple, an 8-year old boy residing with his grandfather at 1929 Walnut street, was critically injured by the explosion of a giant cap yesterday afternoon. The boy found the cap on his way home from Sunday school and not understanding its dangerous character, set it off by striking it with a stone. The explosion that resulted almost tore off his left hand and painfully burned his body, arms and face. Dr. Gilbert, who attended the little sufferer, pronounced his injuries critical but not necessarily fatal.

DEDICATED TO GOD.

English Lutheran Church Fully Launched Upon Its Sacred Career.

The newly renovated English Lutheran church at 12th and Hill streets, was yesterday afternoon dedicated to worship by her pastor, Rev. P. E. Bierbauer, with solemn and impressive service. New pulpit furniture, repapered walls, carpet, organ, electric lights, and other improvements have transformed the inside into a very comfortable and pleasing church home.

The dedication services were attended by the members of the Ministerial association almost without an exception and a large concourse of members and friends of the pastor and congregation crowded the church. The dedication sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr Barnuz of the Lutheran church missionary society. The sermon was deeply impressive and listened to very intently. The music by Miss Love and the Congregational church choir and the male quartette from the Methodist church choir added greatly to the pleasing service. Rev. H. L. Yarger of the Lutheran Church Extension society, made an appeal for subscriptions to pay off the remaining indebtedness of $275, of which over $200 was subscribed by those present.

At the evening service Rev. Mr Simon of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Denver, preached the sermon. The service was largely attended also.

This new church is the outgrowth of a heartfelt interest and desire of the late Rev Dr. Belser. It is a memorial to his influence, and the esteem in which he was held by the missionary societies.

The choir on this occasion was composed of Mrs A. E. Collins, Miss Elizabeth Richards, Mr Hubert Nelms, Mr A. E. Collins and Miss Cora M. Love presided at the organ. The quartette had for tenor Mr Wilcox, for second tenor Mr Austin, for bass Mr L. A. Williams, and Mr W. L. Turman second bass.
